New Google Calendar for FYE Helps You Stay on Track [1]

April 30, 2013 by normandy.roden [2]

There's a new calendar in town. On the Finance System Calendars tab at www.cu.edu/controller/finance/ [3], you'll now find two options under the listing, "FY 2013 Year-End Calendar." The new online option -- at www.cu.edu/controller/finance/calendar.html [4] -- offers filters on activities related to Fiscal Year-End (FYE). Do your job duties revolve around purchasing and travel? Then you'll want to click the "PSC" tab to hone in on procurement-related processing/deadlines. Are you your department's HRMS expert? Then select the "Employee Services" tab to display payroll tasks and timelines. Do you like what you see on the new online Year-End Calendar? Then post a comment and tell us about it!
