In keeping with the OUC Finance & Procurement Business Services unit's focus on technology and business process, FPBS Director Normandy Roden discussed how to improve work through innovative tools at two recent national conferences.

At this year's Higher Education User Group (HEUG) national event -- the 2016 Alliance Conference -- Normandy hosted a Test Kitchen for the new Project & Change Management conference track. During the interactive session, she demo'd "recipes" for project management, change leadership, training, and communications.

At the 2016 Online Learning Conference, sponsored by Training Magazine, Normandy conducted roundtable sessions on Timelines: Creating Visual Chronologies.

Great reviews for CU at both events!
