Two members of the Office of University Controller recently helped kick off the 2014 Colorado Learning & Teaching with Technology (COLTT) Conference in Boulder.

We received very positive feedback on the Infographics session – “1,000 Words are Worth a Picture” – delivered by Director of Finance & Procurement Business Services Normandy Roden and Strategic Communication Technology Manager Travis Chillemi. The one-hour session discussed tips and tools for creating visually-enhanced communications.

The annual COLTT Conference brings together almost 500 faculty, staff, and students from the Rocky Mountain region and beyond. Next year’s event will be held in the Wolf Law Building on the Boulder Campus on Wed, Aug 5-Thurs, Aug 6, 2015.
