OUC Town Hall Sessions are back! [1]

October 16, 2012 by (not verified) [2]

The Office of University Controller (OUC) will be presenting Town Hall sessions this fall to share recent accomplishments and new initiatives with department staff. Discussion topics include the Finance System upgrade, Cognos financial reports, Continuing Professional Education (CPE) and other training, FinPro Help Desk support, and the brand new OUC website. The interactive format includes a presentation, Q&As, and small group discussions on areas of particular interest to individual participants. The sessions are held on all campuses and run from Fri, Oct 26 through Fri, Nov 16. Register soon! We look forward to seeing you, answering your questions, and hearing your thoughts and needs. Update: Registration is is now open! [3]
