Exciting Project Updates: Go Live Date and New Autoclose PO Process [1]

July 26, 2024 by Staff [2]

We have two important updates for the upcoming CU Marketplace redesign:

Go Live Date Confirmed

Our go live date is set for October 17, 2024. We're on track to implement the new system and processes on this date.

New Autoclose PO Process

We're introducing the Autoclose PO Process, which will enhance our procurement operations by automating the closure of Purchase Orders (POs) with a Fully Matched status in the Marketplace.

Key benefits include:

- Enhanced Automation: Reduces the need for manual PO closures.
- Improved Efficiency and Accuracy: Ensures faster and more accurate handling of POs.
- Data Integrity: Maintains accuracy and reliability of procurement data.
- Operational Streamlining: Supports better decision-making and planning.

Stay tuned for more updates as we approach the go live date. For more details, visit our project page [3]. Thank you for your continued support!
