

Unexpected Concur Reservation Entries ^[1]

September 5, 2025 by Staff ^[2]

Following a recent Concur update, you may see reservation details from past trips appearing in your Available Expenses. Please note that this was an unintended system behavior. These reservation transactions are not duplicate expenses, nor have you been charged again.

Transactions displaying an Expense Source of Reservation (see screenshot ^[3]) can be safely removed from your Available Expenses by selecting the menu option (three-dot icon) and choosing Delete.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused and appreciate your understanding. Should you have any questions, please contact us at PSC@cu.edu ^[4]
