Upcoming Price Increase Notification – Bio-Rad Laboratories, Inc. [1]

August 14, 2025 by Staff [2]

Please be advised that our strategic supplier, Bio-Rad Laboratories, Inc., will implement a price increase effective September 1, 2025.

As part of our ongoing supplier relationship management, the University's Strategic Procurement team continuously monitors strategic contracts in collaboration with our suppliers to ensure pricing remains aligned with market conditions and the cost of doing business.

Bio-Rad has communicated that this adjustment is necessary due to increased costs impacting their operations, for an across-the-board increase of 2.5%. If you have any questions or would like further information regarding this update, please feel free to reach out to Alicia Braveheart, Strategic Sourcing Specialist for Scientific & Research directly at alicia.braveheart@cu.edu [3]
