Join us in celebrating new hires, transfers and changes to the UIS team!

New to UIS

Shuaib Ojulari	8/17/2026	Sr Microsoft Security Cloud Engineer	Shuaib has several years of experience in cybersecurity and cloud security, including his previous role as a Cybersecurity Onboarding Engineer at Charles Schwab, where he helped improve security controls, support compliance efforts and strengthen the organization's overall security posture. As a Sr. Microsoft Security Cloud Engineer, Shuaib works to enhance the university's security posture by implementing and optimizing Microsoft security technologies, managing cloud security solutions, and helping protect university systems, data and users from evolving cyber threats. Outside of work, he enjoys playing ping pong, soccer and pool, and is a big soccer fan when he’s not on the field himself. He’s also a proud dad to his nine-year-old son, who keeps life busy and entertaining. Shuaib is excited to be part of the CU community, collaborate with such a talented team and build strong relationships across the university.

Peter Stacholy	9/8/2026	Lead Solutions Manager - HRGL Apps	Peter has worked with PeopleSoft for almost 30 years, the last 11 at the University of California where he supported all financial aspects of the payroll/HR system. As Lead Solutions Manager – HRGL, he is responsible for all the financial aspects of the payroll/HR system. Peter and his wife love to travel and explore new places, particularly wine regions. They have an extensive wine collection and love to share!
Claire Stecker	9/14/2026	Principal Financial Analyst	Claire began her CU career at CU Boulder as an accountant for Infrastructure and Resilience, where she supported transportation, procurement and distribution center operations. As a Principal Financial Analyst, Claire will support the auxiliary side of UIS as part of Paula Ramirez's team, providing financial and procurement support for UIS initiatives. She was born and raised in Colorado and is a huge Buffs football fan. In fact, Chip the Buffalo even made an appearance at her wedding! Outside of work, Claire enjoys cheering on her husband as he coaches at Monarch High School, hiking and spending time with family and friends. She also has a mischievous cat named Leo who loves making surprise appearances during Teams meetings.
Alex Washburn	10/26/2026	Assistant Director of Data Engineering	Alex has spent the last 14 years at a SaaS company supporting the Healthcare Supply Chain. During that time, he worked with internal BI/reporting, data warehousing and building a data platform. He is excited to join the Data Engineering team, owning the Central Information Warehouse (CIW) and Snowflake database. In his personal time, he enjoys getting outdoors, planting things, listening to music and hanging out with my wife. Both his children attend CU Boulder.
