Apply for spring 2025 Tuition Assistance [1]

December 2, 2024 by ES and UIS Communications [2]

The University of Colorado's Tuition Assistance Benefit application is open for spring 2025. This benefit offers the opportunity to access affordable education on any CU campus — while keeping your feet on firm financial ground.

Benefits-eligible faculty and staff can claim up to 12 credit hours per academic year (fall through summer) on any CU campus. Dependent assistance options [3] vary, based on the employee's home campus and the campus that the dependent attends.

What's new?

A new Tuition Assistance Benefit policy debuted for the 2024-25 academic year. It brings new opportunities and greater flexibility for benefits-eligible faculty, staff and their dependents.

- Employees can receive up to 12 credit hours per academic year on any CU campus.
- Employees can receive up to $270 per credit hour for up to 12 undergraduate credits ($3,240 total) for dependents attending a CU campus other than the employee's home campus.
- CU Anschutz, CU Denver or CU Colorado Springs employees can now receive up to 12 credit hours for dependents at their home campus per academic year.
- CU Boulder and System employees can receive a 40% tuition discount tuition for all dependents attending CU Boulder.
- Employees and their dependents can use their tuition benefit concurrently in the same academic year, and even in the same semester.
- Employees no longer need to wait until 7 days before classes start to register.
    - Degree seeking employees may register and wait list during normal designated registration periods.
    - Non-degree seeking students may have different registration windows and should consult their campus for more information.
