September 8, 2025 by ES and UIS Communications [2]

University of Colorado faculty, staff and hourly employees have multiple options to take time away from work. Whether you will welcome a new addition to the family, need to tend to your own or your family members' medical needs, or have a family member preparing or returning from military deployment, Employee Services can assist you in the process every time.

All available leave options are now outlined within one website, cu.edu/leave [3].

Leave options are separated into two types:

- FAMLI, FMLA and Parental Leave details Parental Leave, Family and Medical Leave, Military Exigency Leave and Colorado FAMLI Leave offerings, with content outlined based on your campus policies and employee type.
- Other Types of Leave details vacation, sick leave, administrative leave, court and jury leave, job-related injuries and illnesses, leave sharing and leave without pay.

Take a look at the new site [3] for an overview of your leave options, and reach out to Employee Services if you have questions or need support.
