All 2021 W-2s will be sent by Jan. 31 to the mailing address you have on file in the employee portal and the 1095-C by March 2 to those eligible for health benefits last year. Both forms will be available in the portal shortly after they are released.

What if I see two W-2s in my portal?

Employees with two W-2s may have earnings as a CU and CUR employee or may have worked from two different states during the year. Both W-2s must be submitted when filing your 2021 tax return.

About Form 1095-C
Form 1095-C is sent annually, providing information regarding employer-provided insurance coverage. The form indicates which months during the year the employee/dependents were eligible for health care coverage and the employee required contribution for the elected coverage.

When completing your federal tax return, you will need to indicate whether you had qualifying health coverage for all of 2021 or whether you qualify for a health coverage exemption. Per the IRS, you are not required to submit this form with your 2021 tax filing. However, you should keep this form with tax records.

If you have questions, reach out to a qualified tax advisor.

International employees

Nonresident alien taxpayers whose wages are eligible for a tax treaty exemption, or who are recipients of non-qualified scholarship, will be issued a 1042-S form. Individuals with more than one type of 1042 reportable income will receive more than one 1042-S. The IRS requires 1042-S forms to be mailed no later than March 15, but we strive to mail forms well in advance of that deadline to allow taxpayers as much time as possible to prepare their personal income tax returns. Forms for tax year 2021 will be mailed in early February. Non-resident employees will receive form W-2, as well, reporting their taxable (non-treaty exempt) wages, if any. Individuals should wait to receive all applicable tax reporting forms before filing their income tax returns to avoid the need to amend an incomplete return. If you expect a 1042-S but have not received your form by the third week of February, submit a secure electronic 1042-S Reissue Request Form to Employee Services.

2021 W-4 Exemptions Expire Soon

2021 W-4 tax exemption status will expire on Feb. 15. Employees will need to enter a new W-4 to continue their exemption. Otherwise, the tax status will revert to “single,” the highest withholding status, for 2022.
