

Landed offers support for homebuyers and sellers ^[1]

August 6, 2021 by Employee and Information Services ^[2]

The past 18 months prompted many to evaluate and appreciate physical space. In support of this basic need, the Landed housing program offers assistance for employees in education.

Landed helps employees in education buy homes and navigate their options for homebuying, including its shared equity down payment program, which provides up to $120,000 toward a down payment.

Looking to buy a home?

Landed is hosting two online information sessions for all employees interested in learning more about Landed's down payment program and other homebuying resources.
