Retirement Ready wrap-up: Missed the webinars? You can still write your next chapter [1]

March 10, 2026 by ES and UIS Communications [2]

Retirement Ready webinars conclude March 12, but planning for retirement does not end there. If you missed a PERA or TIAA session or want to revisit one, you can still access recordings for those sessions. All related resources are available to help you write your next chapter with confidence.

Watch webinar recordings on demand

Recordings of all TIAA and PERA sessions are available online and can be viewed at any time:

- TIAA webinar recordings [3]
- PERA webinar recordings [4]

These sessions cover key retirement planning topics, including setting your retirement date, estate planning and distribution strategies.

Social Security and Medicare webinars are not allowed to be recorded. Instead, those live sessions are offered three times each year. You can register now for the next sessions:

Explore year-round retirement resources

The Retirement Ready website [9] remains available year-round with tools, guides and checklists to support your planning process.

You can also watch on-demand retirement preparation courses from the homepage:

- University of Colorado 401(a) Retiree Benefits [10]
- University of Colorado PERA DB Retiree Benefits [11]

These courses provide an overview of retiree benefits and considerations specific to your plan.

Schedule a no-cost consultation with TIAA

In addition to webinars and online courses, all CU employees are eligible to book no-cost personal financial consultations with TIAA. These one-on-one sessions provide an opportunity to review your current retirement savings, discuss your goals and receive individualized guidance from a financial professional.
