Setting professional goals for 2019? We've got resources to guide the way. [1]

January 11, 2019 by Employee Services [2]

The start of a new year brings new goals and resolutions for continued growth. It’s also a prime opportunity to apply this mindset to your work performance, too.

As you set goals and prepare for upcoming performance reviews, get started with our Performance Management Learning Guide [3]. This guide provides videos, courses, books and printable resources to help you make the most of performance review process as a supervisor or an employee.

Learning assets include:

- Keys to Performance Management [4] (3-minute video)
- Planning for Performance [5] (course)
- Performance Management [6] (SkillBrief)

The University of Colorado provides Skillsoft and Lynda.com to CU employees to expand their professional and personal skills. These online systems provide a broad range of courses, videos and learning assets to help you gain new skills or refresh your current one.

Get started [3]

SkillSoft [8], Lynda.com [9], Goals [10], performance review [11]
[6] https://universityofcolorado.skillport.com/skillportfe/custom/login/saml/login.action?courseaction=launch&assetid=mgmt_34_a02_bs_enus_sbmgmt_34_a02_bs_enus002003
[7] https://my.cu.edu/
[8] https://www.cu.edu/blog/work-life/tag/skillsoft
[9] https://www.cu.edu/blog/work-life/tag/lynda.com
[10] https://www.cu.edu/blog/work-life/tag/goals