Tuition Assistance Benefit applications now open for Summer 2021 [1]

May 3, 2021 by Employee Services [2]

Consider summer school an opportunity for growth. The Tuition Assistance Benefit application window is now open for the summer 2021 semester in the employee portal [3].

Qualified employees can save on up to nine credits per academic year (fall through summer) on any CU campus, and their children, spouses and other dependents have several options to save on tuition costs. Dependent options [4] vary based on whether classes are taken on the employee's campus of employment or not.

See full policies, deadlines and instructions on the Tuition Assistance Benefit web page [5].

Submit your application, either for yourself or on your dependent's behalf, by the TAB application deadlines for your campus of attendance:

- CU Boulder: May 31 [6]
- CU Denver and CU Anschutz [7]:
    - May 17 for Maymester
    - June 15 for Summer
- CU Colorado Springs: June 21 [8]

Employees must submit a Tuition Assistance Benefit application on behalf of their dependent. See the links below for full details on campus application deadlines and processes:

Apply now

1. Log into the employee portal [9]
2. Open the CU Resources dropdown menu, and select Forms
3. Click the Career Advancement tile, then click the Tuition Assistance Application tile

Fall 2021 semester policy changes

Starting with the fall semester, employees can register seven (7) days prior to the first day of the semester or the first day of class, whichever is earlier. Learn more about what this change means for TAB users in our recent CU Connections story [10]. This change does not apply to summer 2021 registration.
