CU Denver Chancellor Search Committee Announced
DENVER (AUG 8, 2024) - I am writing to update you on the search for the next CU Denver chancellor. The search process is being guided by Regent Policy 3.C: Searches for Administrators and Guidelines for the Appointment of Chief Officers of the University. I am grateful to the CU Denver shared governance groups and community members for their excellent nominations. We have assembled a strong committee, whose names you will find at the end of this announcement. It includes highly engaged and talented individuals who reflect the quality and character of our Denver campus, the breadth of our university, and the diversity of the Denver metro area’s community.

University of Colorado President Todd Saliman names Ann Schmiesing interim chancellor of CU Denver effective Aug. 26
DENVER – Following the announcement from University of Colorado Denver Chancellor Michelle Marks earlier this week that she would step down as chancellor in August, CU President Todd Saliman has named Ann Schmiesing, Ph.D., interim chancellor of the Denver campus effective Aug. 26.

CU Denver Chancellor Michelle Marks to step down in August
CU CONNECTIONS - (JULY 12, 2020) CU Denver Chancellor Michelle Marks on Tuesday announced she will step down as chancellor Aug. 25 to spend more time with family members facing health-related concerns. She will join the faculty of the CU Denver Business School as a professor.

Source URL: https://www.cu.edu/chancellor-search/communications-0

Links