

The Fiscal Code of Ethics online course offers guidelines for correct conduct for all individuals engaged in financial transactions. It explains CU's Fiscal Code of Ethics, and offers examples of what are considered ethical and unethical business practices. There are two versions of the course: one for officers, and one for other employees and affiliate fiscal staff.

Who should take this course?

- New Officers
- New or existing Finance, Human Resources (HCM), CU Marketplace (except Inquiry/Shopper only), Procurement Card, Travel Card, or CIW (Central Information Warehouse) users: required.
- CU employees or affiliates who seek a greater understanding of CU's fiscal code of ethics: optional.

How do you take this course?
