

Kristin Bruner - CPE Instructor ^[1]

Kristin Bruner is Project Journal Entry Accountant in the Boulder Campus Controller's Office. In this role, she reviews and provides secondary approval for CU Boulder journal entries involving sponsored projects. She also monitors audit findings from other universities to ensure the highest standards in timeliness, correct documentation, and justification of all cost transfers.

Kristin has been involved with the Boulder Campus in various contexts for many years.

Since arriving at the Campus Controller's Office, she has thoroughly enjoyed learning about the various compliance aspects at the University and is always excited to hear about the incredible research that is being conducted at CU.

In her free time, she enjoys playing volleyball, dancing, and spending time with her Great Pyrenees mix, Odin.
