Tax-Exempt Information: Check out New Online Resources [1]

April 15, 2026

April 15 is Tax Day. Many happy returns!

Since tax is on many people's minds today, let's take a look at the recently revised Tax-Exempt Information page on the OUC website.

If you're looking for tax certificates and related guidance, the Tax-Exempt Information webpage is a great place to start. We've reengineered the content to logically group together the forms you may need to provide to a vendor and refined the instructions to be more direct and user friendly.

From any page on the OUC website (www.cu.edu/controller [2]), you can click on "Tax" in the horizontal navigation at the top of the page -- then select the Tax-Exempt Information link to arrive at www.cu.edu/controller/tax/tax-exempt-information [3]. This is the go-to page for most department questions.

We've also revised the set-up and content on the OUC's other Tax pages. If you have questions about Moving Expenses or Unrelated Business Income Tax, please review these sites as well.

Questions? Reach out to the OUC's Financial Services & Solutions team (FSS@cu.edu [4]) - we're happy to help.
