CPE: Webinar Recordings Now Available [1]

December 16, 2025

Last month, we discussed some changes to our Continuing Professional Education (CPE) website -- the addition of handouts and related materials [2] to the course description page, following delivery of a live CPE webinar.

Now, we'll also be posting the webinar recordings to the course pages after webinar delivery.

- The first course of the year to receive this welcome update is our highly rated Career Development course.
- We've received many requests for access to a recording for this session, so we're very pleased to announce that it's now avalable: On the Career Development course page [3], look for the Course Recording & Resources sidebar in the upper right.
- Note the reminder that you cannot receive CPE credit for watching a recorded webinar.

Happy watching!
