IRS 1099 Reporting Threshold Change and Updates to Procedures [2]

As discussed in previous newsletters (Dec 16 and Dec 23), effective January 1, 2026, the Internal Revenue Service has increased the general reporting threshold for most payments on Form 1099-NEC (Nonemployee Compensation) and 1099-MISC (Miscellaneous Information), from $600 to $2,000.

OUC Form News: Updates to Recognition Reporting Form [3]

Following up on our earlier article, the Recognition Reporting form has been revised effective January 1, 2026.

CPE: Fulfill Your New Year's Training Resolutions! [4]

With the start of a new calendar year, there's a lot of talk about Quitter's Day.

If your 2026 resolutions include a focus on learning something new, here's your chance to not quit by joining one of our Continuing Professional Education (CPE) classes in January.
