CU I&E Awards: 18 Days till Submission Deadline! [1]

March 13, 2026

Attention, CU innovators: We've heard from resourceful, creative employees across the campuses, telling us what they've accomplished in the areas of finance/accounting, sponsored projects/research, sustainability, technology, and training.

You still have time to tell us what you have accomplished in these areas ... in communication ... in customer service ... and so forth. This year's award program wraps up on Tuesday, March 31.

So don't wait ...

- Check out the CU I&E Current Submissions website [2] to catch up on what your colleagues have shared.
- Then, share your own story! Our submission form is open [3] through midnight, March 31.
