CPE: Manage Conflict ... and Get Things Done! [1]

May 1, 2026

Do you wish you could handle conflicts more gracefully? Would you like to gain control, clarity, and focus through stress-free productivity? Our Continuing Professional Education (CPE) classes this month may be just what you're looking for.

Learn to manage issues and disputes more effectively with our Conflict Styles webinar. Pick up skills to focus your attention on things that matter most with Getting Things Done.

- Both classes are open for registration now [2].

In case you missed our recent webinars:

- We've posted recordings and course handouts on our website [2] for several recent classes: Budget Basics; Understanding University Tax Liabilities; CU-Data: Calculating Your Bottom Line; Red Flag Identity Theft Prevention Program; and, Leading Yourself through Change: The Power of Habit.

We're beginning to schedule CPE classes for the remainder of the calendar year.

- Check our Schedule & Registration webpage [2] -- or ask to be added to our CPE notification list -- to stay informed.

Questions? Contact the OUC's Financial Services & Solutions team (FSS@cu.edu [3]).
