CPE: Recent Webinars Now Available Online [1]

May 14, 2026

We've just posted recordings of recent Continuing Professional Education (CPE) webinars on our website.

So if you missed the live sessions, you can still further your learning and skill development by watching the videos. If you're a CPA, remember that you cannot receive CPE credit for watching the recording.

- In Conflict Styles [2], you'll learn about your go-to approach to conflict ... and how and when you might adopt a different approach to most effectively manage issues and disputes.
- In Getting Things Done [3], you'll learn four new behaviors to enhance energy, attention, and time management.

To catch up on other recent training sessions, check our Schedule & Registration webpage [4]. Past courses are listed in the sidebar in the upper right and the links take you to the course pages with their recordings and handouts.
