UCCS is one of the fastest growing U.S. universities. In the shadow of Pikes Peak in Colorado Springs, UCCS is home to more than 11,500 students and more than 1,700 employees. Annually, UCCS as a campus generates nearly $600 million in economic impact, demonstrating the economic importance of all CU campuses.

To date, UCCS offers 53 bachelor’s degrees, 24 master’s degrees and 8 doctoral programs and is home to the world’s only Bachelor of Innovation degree. Each UCCS’ six colleges and schools offers a diverse mix of degrees, many of which are ranked locally and nationally for their quality. It is also a top ranked military friendly university.

The campus hosts more than 400 international students and employs more than 900 faculty members.