Once it's determined you're a good candidate for an eComm license, complete the following pre-access requirements.

STEP 1 | Discovery

Meet with your eComm specialist. Review your communication and event goals and learn how eComm can best support your efforts. Complete our questionnaire with your team beforehand.

STEP 2 | Pre-Access Requirements

Before access to eComm tools (Salesforce, Marketing Cloud and Cvent) is granted, new users must sign the eComm User Agreement and complete training for data security, confidentiality, FERPA and PCI compliance. This is not training of the Salesforce tools and must be completed BEFORE access to the applications can be granted.

LICENSE SCHEDULE eComm licenses are distributed monthly. Pre-access Requirements and a license request needs to be in by the last day of the month for new users to recieve login credentials around the 5th of the month.

? eComm User Agreement

All users and their supervisors must sign the eComm User Agreement [4]. After you sign the form, the eComm team will send a signature request to your supervisor. This agreement outlines important requirements that you and your supervisor must agree to before you can be provisioned for an eComm license, including confidentiality, data security, fiscal responsibility, CAN-SPAM compliance, training, processes & policies.

? Skillsoft Courses for all users | complete every 3 years

All users must complete the following SkillSoft courses.
