As a Faculty or University Staff member, you have short-term and long-term disability insurance options. These benefits are administered by The Standard Insurance Company.

Short-term disability: Your enrollment is optional, you pay for premiums<sup>Premium</sup>The monthly cost to participate in the plan. Typically, it is shared between the employee and the employer. Premiums are deducted from your monthly paycheck. <sup>[3]</sup> and the income benefit is not taxed if you file a claim. If you do not enroll in short-term disability during your initial enrollment period and enroll at a later date, you will be subject to the Late Enrollment Penalty (LEP)<sup>Late Enrollment Period (LEP)</sup>A penalty imposed by the insurer to employees who do not apply during their initial enrollment period (their new hire enrollment). The penalty is incurred if you enroll in Short-Term Disability at any time other than your new hire enrollment. In this case, if you file a claim for anything other than an accidental injury during the first 12 months after your coverage becomes effective, Short-Term Disability benefits will be subject to a 60-day waiting period, rather than the regular 29-day waiting period. <sup>[4]</sup> See table below.

NOTE: Employees who are eligible for CU FAML I leave should be aware that FAML I leave is the first payer during an employee’s qualifying leave of absence. Any eligible Short-term Disability benefits will be automatically offset (reduced) by an employee’s FAML I wage replacement benefit, even if the employee does not apply for CU FAML I.

Long-term disability: LTD is provided to eligible employees. CU will automatically enroll you after one year of continuous employment in an eligible position. Premiums<sup>Premium</sup>The monthly cost to participate in the plan. Typically, it is shared between the employee and the employer. Premiums are deducted from your monthly paycheck. <sup>[3]</sup> are paid by CU, and the income benefit is taxable if you file a claim<sup>Claim</sup>A written request such as a reimbursement of a health care expense made by you or your health care provider to the plan administrator whether is medical, dental, vision or a flexible spending account. <sup>[5]</sup>
