As a Faculty or University Staff member, you have short-term and long-term disability insurance options administered by The Standard Insurance Company. View plan information below.

Short-term disability: Your enrollment is optional, you pay for premiumsPremiumThe monthly cost to participate in the plan. Typically, it is shared between the employee and the employer. Premiums are deducted from your monthly paycheck. [2] and the income benefit is not taxed if you file a claim. If you do not enroll in short-term disability during your initial enrollment period and enroll at a later date, you will be subject to the Late Enrollment Penalty (LEP)Late Enrollment Period (LEP)A penalty imposed by the insurer to employees who do not apply during their initial enrollment period (their new hire enrollment). The penalty is incurred if you enroll in Short-Term Disability at any time other than your new hire enrollment. In this case, if you file a claim for anything other than an accidental injury during the first 12 months after your coverage becomes effective, Short-Term Disability benefits will be subject to a 60-day waiting period, rather than the regular 29-day waiting period. [3]. See table below.

NOTE: Employees who are eligible for CU FAMLI leave should be aware that FAMLI leave is the first payer during an employee's qualifying leave of absence. Any eligible Short-term Disability benefits will be automatically offset (reduced) by an employee's FAMLI wage replacement benefit, even if the employee does not apply for CU FAMLI.
