2026–27 plan year changes

This page provides details about the 2025–26 short-term and long-term disability insurance for Faculty and University Staff. To learn about the 2026–27 disability insurance plans, visit the Open Enrollment Disability Insurance page for Faculty and University Staff ^[2].

As a Faculty or University Staff member, you have short-term and long-term disability insurance options. These benefits are administered by The Standard Insurance Company.

Short-term disability: Your enrollment is optional, you pay for premiums^{Premium}The monthly cost to participate in the plan. Typically, it is shared between the employee and the employer. Premiums are deducted from your monthly paycheck. ^[3] and the income benefit is not taxed if you file a claim. If you do not enroll in short-term disability during your initial enrollment period and enroll at a later date, you will be subject to the Late Enrollment Penalty (LEP)^{Late Enrollment Period (LEP)}A penalty imposed by the insurer to employees who do not apply during their initial enrollment period (their new hire enrollment). The penalty is incurred if you enroll in Short-Term Disability at any time other than your new hire enrollment. In this case, if you file a claim for anything other than an accidental injury during the first 12 months after your coverage becomes effective, Short-Term Disability benefits will be subject to a 60-day waiting period, rather than the regular 29-day waiting period. ^[4] See table below.

NOTE: Employees who are eligible for CU FAML I leave should be aware that FAML I leave is the first payer during an employee’s qualifying leave of absence. Any eligible Short-term Disability benefits will be automatically offset (reduced) by an employee’s FAML I wage replacement benefit, even if the employee does not apply for CU FAML I.

Long-term disability: LTD is provided to eligible employees. CU will automatically enroll you after one year of continuous employment in an eligible position. Premiums^{Premium}The monthly cost to participate in the plan. Typically, it is shared between the employee and the employer. Premiums are deducted from your monthly paycheck. ^[3] are paid by CU, and the income benefit is taxable if you file a claim.^{Claim}A written request such as a reimbursement of a health care expense made by you or your health care provider to the plan administrator whether is medical, dental, vision or a flexible spending account. ^[5]
