EMPLOYEE SERVICES EXPO

You're all about CU. We're all about you.

Take advantage of all the University of Colorado has to offer at the Employee Services Expos, coming to your campus from Oct. 7-22.

The Employee Services Expos promise to perk up your day – with a little caffeine and by learning about all the perks, services and benefits CU provides to employees like you.

You'll be on the hunt for perks, discounts, benefits and services exclusive to CU employees – some you may not even know about. You'll meet experts who can answer your questions on anything from your medical and retirement plans, earning a degree with the help of CU's tuition assistance benefit and much more. You'll learn about services CU provides to you at no cost and claim discounts on others.

Be sure to attend one of our talks, too. You'll learn ways to meet your financial goals.

You'll also have the chance to enter a drawing for one of five $100 prizes when you conquer our simple scavenger hunt. Take a break from work, play games with your colleagues and learn a thing or two about CU.
