Family Medical Leave for System Administration ^[1]

When a major life event changes your world—for better or worse—the safety of your job is the last thing you should have to worry about. That’s why Family Medical Leave is here.

The information on this page applies to CU System employees only.

Please consult the appropriate HR website for your campus:

CU System Administration complies with the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) of 1993, which means you can take up to 12 weeks of time off in a rolling 12-month period and be assured your job is protected during leave taken for one of the following reasons:

- the birth and subsequent care of a baby
- the placement and care of a child in adoptive/foster care
- a serious health condition of an employee’s spouse, domestic partner, child or parent
- your own serious health condition
- care for a parent, spouse, civil union partner, domestic partner, child or next of kin who is an injured service member
- a qualifying exigency when your parent, child, spouse, civil union partner or domestic partner is called up for active military duty
