<tr>
<td>What are Collaborative HR Services?</td>
<td>Collaborative HR services is a way to describe how human resources operates at CU. While each campus has its own human resources offices, these offices collaborate with the CU System office to deliver certain services, such as recruiting systems, employment verification, hiring independent contractors and more. Working together, we provide resources each employee needs for success. Additionally, the CU System HR office provides human resources services for system employees.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How do I start the recruitment process?</td>
<td>You can start the recruitment process by completing the Position Budget Form and sending the completed signed form and original Word document of the position description to systemhr@cu.edu [2]. If you are recruiting, HR requires 72 hours for the position to be updated and posted to CU Careers. Please visit our HR recruiting webpages for detailed instructions [3].</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How long does it take to complete a recruitment?</td>
<td>We ask that recruitment be limited to 8 weeks.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>When do I as a Supervisor approve biweekly employee hours?</td>
<td>They must be received by 5 p.m. Tuesday the same week payroll is due. For example, if payroll is due Friday, July 22, approval must be given by 5 p.m. Tuesday, July 19. See the payroll section for a list of monthly and biweekly pay dates.</td>
