What is a Cafeteria Plan?

A cafeteria plan is a tax-savings benefits program designed to take advantage of Section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code. It allows you to pay certain qualified expenses on a pre-tax basis, reducing your taxable income. This includes CU's Premium-Only PlanPremium Only PlanThe benefit under IRS Section 125 that allows you to pay medical, dental and vision premiums on pre-tax basis. ^[21] and two Flexible Spending Accounts.

HCFSA basics

- Our HCFSA is administered by ASIFlex ^[22].
- This account is regulated by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), who determines contribution limits, qualifying expensesEligible ExpensePurchases or services received that are allowed by the benefit provider and complies with IRS regulations.

^[3] and has designated it as a “use it or lose it” account. ^[23] The IRS regulations in regards to the money you elect to contribute to flexible spending accounts that must be spent and claimed within the designated period of time or the monies will be forfeited. ^[4]

- Enrollment in a medical, dental and/or vision plan is not required for you and/or your federal tax dependents. ^[24] An employee's spouse, common-law spouse, civil union partner, domestic partner, children under the age of 27, and qualifying disabled children over age 27 of the employee or of the spouse/partner who are biological, legally adopted or for whom there are parental responsibility documents issued by a court. ^[4] to participate in the HCFSA.
- Your FSA (Flexible Spending Account) A tax-savings account set up by you to pay for certain qualifying expenses on a pre-tax basis, meaning before they are made subject to payroll taxes. ^[24] becomes effective on July 1, if enrolled during Open Enrollment Period. The period during which an eligible employee may enroll in, change or cancel CU benefits plans. This event is held every spring, with an effective date of July 1. ^[25]
- HCFSA enrollment elections do not rollover year after year. You must re-enroll every year during Open Enrollment Period. The period during which an eligible employee may enroll in, change or cancel CU benefits plans. This event is held every spring, with an effective date of July 1. ^[25] in order to continue your account for a new plan year.

HCFSA contributions

- Upcoming plan year: Your pre-tax contributions can be a minimum of $10 per month up to an annual total maximum of $3,300 for the 2025-26 plan year (July 1 to June 30) per employee. The money is deducted from your paycheck pre-tax.
- The amount you elect will be divided by the number of remaining pay periods in the plan year. Your final contribution will be June 30.
- Your election is fixed for the plan year. However, changes are permitted if you experience a qualifying life event ^[26].

Spending your money

- Funds in the account must be used on qualifying health care expenses ^[27] or you will pay both taxes and penalties.
- Eligible Expenses Purchases or services received that are allowed by the benefit provider and complies with IRS regulations. ^[3] qualify for the HCFSA when they are incurred, not when they are paid.
- ASIFlex The third party administrator for the flexible spending accounts. ^[28], our FSA Administrator, will mail you a debit card A bank card that will allow you to pay the health care provider or merchant directly from your health care flexible spending account (HCFSA) or health savings account (HSA). ^[29] that you must activate. The debit card A bank card that will allow you to pay the health care provider or merchant directly from your health care flexible spending account (HCFSA) or health savings account (HSA). ^[29] will be pre-loaded with the FULL amount you elect at your enrollment. When you need to pay for an eligible expense^[3] Eligible Expense Purchases or services received that are allowed by the benefit provider and complies with IRS regulations.^[3], present your ASIFlex debit card^[30] at the time of purchase. This will then pay for the health care service/product straight from your HCFSa account. The use of the card is not paperless, and supporting documentation may be required to substantiate a transaction.

- If you don't have your ASIFlex debit card^[30] Debit Card A bank card that will allow you to pay the health care provider or merchant directly from your health care flexible spending account (HCFSa) or health savings account (HSA).^[29] with you at the time of purchase/services, you can file a claim^[31] Claim A written request such as a reimbursement of a health care expense made by you or your health care provider to the plan administrator whether is medical, dental, vision or a flexible spending account.^[31] online at www.asiflex.com^[32] or you can download the free mobile app for Android and Apple devices.

Use it or lose it accounts

Failure to incur the expense and claim the reimbursement by the deadline will result in the forfeiting of your funds.

- For the upcoming plan year (2025-26): You must incur expenses from July 1, 2025 to Sept. 15, 2026 and claim the money by Nov. 15, 2026.

Effect on Social Security

Cafeteria plan^[33] Cafeteria Plan A plan that meets the requirements of IRS Code Section 125 and offers participating employees certain non-taxable benefits, such as the Premium Only Plan and flexible spending accounts ^[33] dollars are deducted from your pay pretax, meaning before federal, state, Social Security and Medicare taxes are paid. Participating in cafeteria plans^[33] Cafeteria Plan A plan that meets the requirements of IRS Code Section 125 and offers participating employees certain non-taxable benefits, such as the Premium Only Plan and flexible spending accounts ^[33] reduces the salary on which annual contributions to Social Security are calculated, which may result in a reduction of the Social Security benefits received at retirement. The reduction is minimal and you may wish to discuss it with your tax advisor.

Effect on PERA

If you were a PERA member on or before June 30, 2019: Cafeteria plan^[33] Cafeteria Plan A plan that meets the requirements of IRS Code Section 125 and offers participating employees certain non-taxable benefits, such as the Premium Only Plan and flexible spending accounts ^[33] dollars are deducted from your pay pretax, meaning before federal, state and Medicare taxes are paid. Your PERA retirement annuity or disability retirement is based on your PERA Highest Average Salary (HAS) calculation. Since cafeteria plans reduce the salary on which PERA calculates benefits, your PERA retirement benefits may be reduced.
