- Your FSAFSA (Flexible Spending Account) A tax-savings account set up by you to pay for certain qualifying expenses on a pre-tax basis, meaning before they are made subject to payroll taxes. [24] becomes effective on your benefits eligibility date if you are a new hire [8] or July 1, if enrolled during Open Enrollment Open Enrollment Period The period during which an eligible employee may enroll in, change or cancel CU benefits plans. This event is held every spring, with an effective date of July 1. [29].
- HCFSAs enrollment elections do not rollover year after year. You must re-enroll every year during Open Enrollment Open Enrollment Period The period during which an eligible employee may enroll in, change or cancel CU benefits plans. This event is held every spring, with an effective date of July 1. [29] in order to continue your account for a new plan year.

HCFSAs contributions

- Current plan year: Your pre-tax contributions can be a minimum of $10 per month up to an annual total maximum of $2,750 for the 2021-22 plan year (July 1 to June 30) per employee. The money is deducted from your paycheck pre-tax.
- The amount you elect will be divided by the number of remaining pay periods in the plan year. Your final contribution will be June 30.
- Your election is fixed for the Plan Year however, changes are permitted if you experience a Qualifying Life Event [30].

Spending your money

- Funds in the account must be utilized on qualifying health care expenses [31], or you will pay both taxes and penalties.

- Eligible Expense Purchases or services received that are allowed by the benefit provider and complies with IRS regulations. ^[5] qualify for the HCFSA when they are incurred, not when they are paid.
- ASIFlex The third party administrator for the flexible spending accounts. ^[32], our FSA Administrator, will mail you a Debit Card A bank card that will allow you to pay the health care provider or merchant directly from your health care flexible spending account (HCFSA) or health savings account (HSA). ^[33] that you must activate. The Debit Card A bank card that will allow you to pay the health care provider or merchant directly from your health care flexible spending account (HCFSA) or health savings account (HSA). ^[33] will be pre-loaded with the FULL amount you elect at your enrollment. When you need to pay for an eligible expense Purchases or services received that are allowed by the benefit provider and complies with IRS regulations. ^[5], present your ASIFlex debit card ^[34] at the time of purchase. This will then pay for the health care service/product straight from your HCFSA account. The use of the card is not paperless, and supporting documentation may be required to substantiate a transaction.
- If you don't have your ASIFlex Debit Card A bank card that will allow you to pay the health care provider or merchant directly from your health care flexible spending account (HCFSA) or health savings account (HSA). ^[33] with you at the time of purchase/services, you can file a claim A written request such as a reimbursement of a health care expense made by you or your health care provider to the plan administrator whether is medical, dental, vision or a flexible spending account. ^[9] online at www.asiflex.com ^[35] or you can download the free mobile app for Android and Apple devices.

Use it or lose it accounts

Failure to incur the expense and claim the reimbursement by the deadline will result in the forfeiting of your funds.

- For the current plan year (2021-22): You must incur expenses from July 1, 2021 to Sept. 15, 2022 and claim the money by Nov. 15, 2022
- For the previous plan year (2020-21): The existing grace period for the plan year ending June 30, 2021 has been extended. You are now able to continue incurring expenses through June 30, 2022 and file claims until Aug. 31, 2022.

Effect on Social Security

Cafeteria Plan A plan that meets the requirements of IRS Code Section 125 and offers participating employees certain non-taxable benefits, such as the Premium Only Plan and flexible spending accounts ^[36] dollars are deducted from your pay pretax, meaning before federal, state, Social Security and Medicare taxes are paid. Participating in cafeteria plans Cafeteria Plan A plan that meets the requirements of IRS Code Section 125 and offers participating employees certain non-taxable benefits, such as the Premium Only Plan and flexible spending accounts ^[36] reduces the salary on which annual contributions to Social Security are calculated, which may result in a reduction of the Social Security benefits received at retirement. The reduction is minimal and you may wish to discuss it with your tax advisor.

Effect on PERA

If you are a PERA member on or before June 30, 2019: Cafeteria planCafeteria Plan
A plan that meets the requirements of IRS Code Section 125 and offers participating employees certain non-taxable benefits, such as the Premium Only Plan and flexible spending accounts [36] dollars are deducted from your pay pretax, meaning before federal, state, and Medicare taxes are paid. Your PERA retirement annuity or disability retirement is based on your PERA Highest Average Salary (HAS) calculation. Since cafeteria plans reduce the salary on which PERA calculates benefits, your PERA retirement benefits may be reduced.
