What is the difference between a CU International Employee and a CU Global Employee?

CU International Employees

- Resident or nonresident alien working inside the United States
- Subject to U.S. taxation, labor and employment laws
- Compliance resource: International Tax

CU Global Employee

- Any employee working outside the United States
- Subject to taxation, labor and employment laws in the country in which they are working
- Compliance resource: Global PEO Services [4]

CU is not a global employer and is unable to service employees working from outside the U.S. Remote work from abroad may be possible through partnership with Global PEO Services, to ensure the university's compliance with foreign tax requirements, but requires careful advanced consideration and commitment by the hiring department.
