Published on University of Colorado (https://www.cu.edu)

International Student Stipends and Scholarships [1]

Welcome to the University of Colorado! As an international student, you may have a lot of questions. The International Tax office is here to help.

Whether you're new to the U.S. — or just new to CU — international students have unique concerns. Whether you have questions about the U.S. tax system or your own tax obligations, the International Tax Office is here to make sure you can meet your obligations with knowledge and confidence.

[2]

Step 1: Submit information to Sprintax Calculus

If you receive a taxable or tax-treaty exempt scholarship, you will receive an email from Sprintax Calculus inviting you to login to web-based Sprintax Calculus to complete your profile. Details provided through Calculus will drive taxation of your scholarship including d s.

[3]

Step 2: Review information on your U.S. tax responsibilities

Once you've determined your tax status in Sprintax Calculus, use these resources as a reference and reminder about your tax filing responsibilities and more.

See resources [3]

Groups audience:
Employee Services
Right Sidebar:

ES: International Tax Contact - Student version

Source URL:https://www.cu.edu/employee-services/international-tax/international-student-stipends-and-scholarships

Links
[1] https://www.cu.edu/employee-services/international-tax/international-student-stipends-and-scholarships [2] https://www.cu.edu/employee-services/international-tax/international-student-stipends-and-scholarships/sprintax [3] https://www.cu.edu/employee-services/international-tax/international-student-stipends-and-scholarships/tax-documents