Faculty Governance [1]

[2]

There are several opportunities for engaging in shared governance, at either the system- or campus-level.

System Level

Faculty Senate | Faculty Council

Faculty Council is the executive body of the Faculty Senate and initiates recommendations to the president or appropriate administrative officials for submission to the Board of Regents, on matters within the jurisdiction of the Council that are related to educational policy, and the internal and external operation of the University.

Campus Level

Campus Faculty Assembly

Each campus has a Faculty Assembly, whose members are elected/appointed by their schools and colleges on each campus to represent the interests of the faculty and to work with campus administration.
