

Faculty Handbook: Faculty Governance ^[1]

Please note: A comprehensive review of all Regent Laws and Policies is currently underway. Faculty Handbook references to Law and Policy and related Administrative Policy Statements have not yet been updated to reflect recent changes. For the most recent information, please visit <https://www.cu.edu/regents/laws-and-policies> ^[2] or <https://www.cu.edu/ope/aps> ^[3].

I. General Faculty

A. Membership

The Laws of the Regents define the membership of the general faculty of the University of Colorado. (The membership of the faculty of each college or school is defined in Regent Laws Section 4.A.4, Faculty Membership ^[4].) Regent policy defines members of the general faculty for the purpose of clarifying those positions exempt from the State Personnel System.

- Regent Laws Section 5.A.1(A), Membership ^[6]

B. Meetings

Meetings of the general faculty of the university may be called by the president.

- Regent Laws Section 5.A.1(B), Meetings ^[6]

II. Faculty Government

A. Acknowledgment

The organizations of the faculty government are the university-wide Faculty Senate, the Senate committees, the Faculty Council and its committees, the four campuses' faculty governing bodies and their committees, and the faculty in each college or school. The constitution of the faculty government is found in the Rules of the Senate. Provisions in the Laws of the Regents on faculty government are in Part E of Article 5.

C. Faculty Council

The Faculty Council is the representative governing body of the Faculty Senate. The organization and responsibilities of the Faculty Council are established in the Rules of the Senate. See also provisions in the Laws of the Regents on the Faculty Council.

- Regent Laws, Section 5.E.3, Faculty Council [6]
- Faculty Senate Constitution [7]

D. Campus Governing Bodies

Faculty Senate members on each campus are organized as local faculty senates, each of which has its own constitution and bylaws. The faculty governing bodies currently constituted on the four campuses are: Boulder Faculty Assembly, Colorado Springs Faculty Assembly, Denver Faculty Assembly and Health Sciences Center Faculty Assembly. See also provisions in the Laws of the Regents on campus governing bodies.

- Regent Laws Section 5.E.4, Campus Faculty Senate and Governing Bodies [6]
- Faculty Senate Constitution [7]

E. Shared Governance

The relationship between faculty, governance and the administration and the Board of Regents, is defined in the Laws of the Regents and in the Faculty Senate Constitution..
