Guaranteed Admission [1]

A program for Colorado Community College transfer students to be guaranteed admission to the following University of Colorado undergraduate schools:

University of Colorado Boulder

[2]College of Arts and Sciences [3]

[4]College of Letters, Arts and Sciences [4]

These colleges offer the broadest array of academic programs on our campuses. They are home to many of the most popular majors, including political science, biology, English, economics, history and many more.

Eligibility

To be eligible for guaranteed admission, transfer students from public Colorado community colleges must meet the following requirements:

- High school diploma or GED;
- 30 semester hours of transferable Colorado community college coursework, with a GPA of 2.7 or higher;

- a cumulative GPA of 2.7+ for all college coursework – including credits from attendance at other institutions – with consistent or improving grades;
- completion of Minimum Academic Preparation Standards (MAPS); and also
- completion of an admissions application and submission of all required documents by published deadlines.

Transfer to CU

All Colorado community college students are encouraged to apply to the University of Colorado at any point in their academic careers. Community college students who do not meet the conditions of guaranteed admission remain eligible for admission and are evaluated on an individual basis.
