Policy Process

The APS Process Flowchart [3] outlines the key stakeholders, phases and responsible parties involved with the Administration Policy Statements process for initiation, development, approval, implementation and maintenance of the APS issued by the Office of the President. The Office of Policy and Efficiency (OPE) is responsible for the policy process. Key templates used in the process include:

- APS Justification Template [4]
- Policy Template [5]
- Procedure Template [6]
- FAQ Template [7]

Guide to Writing Policy

Before developing a new policy, read the User Guide to Writing Policies [8], which will help you plan your policy and fill out the template. Quick links to reference materials:

- APS Style Guide [9]

Planning the Policy Actions

Once the new policy or revision is ready for development, download and complete the Justification Template [4]. Use the Policy Template [5] for new policies or download the latest versions of existing policies in Word format for editing. Use additional templates (procedures, FAQs) to develop related documents. Links and forms for the initial policy development process:

Policy Rollout

Once the policy is approved, it will be finalized and posted online. In addition, OPE and the policy owners will communicate the changes as outlined in the APS Communications Plan.

Maintaining the Policy

OPE tracks upcoming reviews of the policies and procedures that you own. The APS Database provides access to your policies and related documents.
