

High Deductible ^[1]

CU Health Plan - High Deductible/HSAHSA (Health Savings Account)A tax-savings account that must be paired with a High-Deductible Health Plan, which can be used to pay for qualified health care expenses now or in the future. An HSA is a savings account that you own. The funds in an HSA carry forward year after year, even if you change employers or retire. ^[2] Compatible is perfect for planners and savers.

This Anthem-administered plan gives you access to health care services inside and outside your networkNetworkThe facilities, providers and suppliers with whom your health insurer or plan has contracted to provide health care services ^[3] — but requires that you first meet your deductible. Once you've satisfied the deductible, you'll pay coinsuranceCoinsurance The portion of expenses that you have to pay for certain covered services, calculated as a percentage. For example, if the coinsurance rate is 20%, then you are responsible for paying 20% of the bill, and the insurance company will pay 80%. ^[4] for care.

This plan offers Anthem's nationwide network of providers and facilities, and you'll have the flexibility to schedule your own appointments with specialists — no primary care providerPrimary Care Provider (PCP)A physician (medical doctor or doctor of osteopathic medicine), nurse practitioner, clinical nurse specialist or physician assistant, as allowed under state law, who provides, coordinates or helps a patient access a range of health care services ^[5] or referralsReferralA written order from your primary care provider for you to see a specialist or receive certain health care services for any covered service that cannot be performed by your primary care provider. This applies to our Anthem Exclusive and Kaiser plans. ^[6] needed.

Helpful tip: This health plan can be paired with a Health Savings Account ^[7].
