A leader in western Colorado for more than a decade, Christian Reece brings deep ties and important connections to CU to help advance our mission to serve the entire state. She formerly served as the Executive Director of Club 20, a non-partisan political advocacy coalition representing western Colorado and was a field representative to a member of Congress before that. Her volunteerism, passion to serve the region, and commitment to building economic prosperity for all Coloradans will serve the University of Colorado well.

Christian's outreach region includes all of western Colorado, from the northwest corner of the state down to the four corners region, and spans into the mountain communities.

Christian has a bachelor's degree from Colorado Mesa University and a master's degree in business from Auburn University. Additionally, she was a Trans-Atlantic Fellow in the prestigious German Marshall Memorial Fellow program and was a fellow in the Colorado Governor's Fellowship.
