

Finalist Open Forums ^[1]

Presidential Finalist Todd Saliman met with stakeholders on each campus and in the community between April 13 and April 25. These events included public open forums on each campus and at the system office in Denver. Videos of the open forums are below. He also met with business and community groups and organizations representing rural communities, non-profit organizations, and elected officials. These groups were asked to provide feedback that will be provided to the Board of Regents before they make a final decision toward the end of April.
