

Before You Travel ^[1]

All domestic and international travel must be approved prior to booking a trip.

All international travel must be approved using Concur Request and your associated Request ID will be required to finalize your international flight reservation. It is recommended that domestic travel be approved using Concur Request, however a department can elect to use an internal travel pre-approval process. Please refer to your department to determine what domestic pre-approval process is appropriate for you.

The Travel Card is designed to facilitate payment of University travel-related expenses.

All domestic and international travel must be approved prior to booking a trip.

[3]

You must request pre-approval for international travel through the Concur Travel & Expense System allowance, or per diem, that is a fixed daily rate to cover the cost of breakfast, lunch, dinner and incidentals (like small cash tips).

- The dollar amount of your travel allowance (per diem) follows U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) per diem rates ^[9] and is based on your destination.
- Any meals provided during travel must be excluded from the travel allowance (per diem) ^[10] when submitting for reimbursement. For example, if breakfast is included in the cost of the hotel, or if the conference provides lunch, you should not seek per diem for those meals.
- On the first and last day of travel, per diem is prorated to 75% of the maximum allowed for the destination. When adding the travel allowance (per diem) in Concur, the system will generally calculate this for you.

Cash Advances

The university may issue a cash advance to an employee to cover specific situations, as described in the PSC Procedural Statement: Cash Advance ^[11]. Such expenses are typically related to group travel, extended stay, and/or remote location.

Cash advances may only be issued to university employees.
