Board Meetings [1]

The University of Colorado Board of Regents meets in public session typically on one of its four campuses. The board follows all rules and regulations of the Colorado Open Meetings Law, or Sunshine Law, approved by voters in 1972. The law generally requires that any state or local governmental body that meets to discuss public business or to take formal action do so in meetings open to the public. Under the law (§24-6-402, C.R.S.), "meeting" refers to any kind of gathering, convened to discuss public business, whether in person, by telephone, electronically, or by other means of communication. Electronic mail messages can be considered meetings under the statute. The statute does not apply to chance meetings or social occasions where public business is not the central purpose of the meeting.

Public comment:

The Board of Regents remote meeting on Sept. 10 will include live public comment, which will be limited due to time constraints. Please let us know by close of business on Sept. 8 if you would like to participate. This is not a guarantee of participation.

If you would like to participate, please send an email to CUBoardofRegents@cu.edu [2] with “live public comment” in the subject line and the following information in your email:
- Your full name
- Name of organization or a description of who you are (i.e., UCCS student government)
- Topic to be discussed

A Board staff member will respond to your email with more information. Organizations should designate one person to speak on their behalf. If there are no available time slots or you do not wish to speak at the meeting, you may submit a written statement to the Board via email at CUBoardofRegents@cu.edu [2]. Please indicate your email is for “public comment.”
