Retention Rates of First-Time Freshman

The first-year retention rate measures the percentage of first-year, first-time students who persisted in their educational program a year later. The cohort includes only first-time freshman enrolled full-time (12 or more credit hours). Successful retention is defined as being enrolled at the same institution in the fall term of the following year.

Having trouble viewing? View the full page version (mobile friendly).
Data source: University of Colorado System Office, Office of Institutional Research.

Back to Budget and Finance Office

Source URL: https://www.cu.edu/retention-rates-first-time-freshman

Links
[2] https://www.cu.edu/node/814
[5] https://www.cu.edu/