Diversity Inclusion & Outreach Committee

DIO's goal is to create a welcoming and inclusive environment.

We would like to enhance opportunities and increase awareness of our diverse communities and culture. Engagement events give University employees opportunities to interact with and support the local community through fundraising, donations, and volunteer activities.

Teaching-Learning events

Outreach - Explore how CU serves Colorado

Please consider making a difference locally. Explore how CU serves Colorado and help a local organization like the non-profits below:

to iPledge and give monthly or a lump sum.

- Florence Crittenton empowers teen mothers. This is part of our Winter Holiday Drive. Learn how you can connect, volunteer or give.
- Clothes to Kids Denver donate new or gently used clothes.
- Dumb Friends League donate old towels, shoeboxes, water bottle caps and cardboard egg cartons, and more. DFL supply list.
- Find a great non-profit that motivates you.

Training & Learning

1. CU at the Top: Diversity and Inclusion (you can browse or formally begin by completing an agreement form with your supervisor)
   - Understand and implement strategies for inclusion.
   - Uncover components of your own biases and perceptions.
   - Gain insight into other identities and experiences that are different from your own.

2. CU Boulder
   - Learn about Inclusivity from their Center for Teaching and Learning
   - Self-Paced Anti-Racism Course on Canvas
   - Anti-Racism on Coursera
   - Anti-Racism Resources (read, watch, listen, act, teach, & reflect) from their University Libraries
   - Learn about Campus Actions to Enable Change, addressing systematic racism at the Office of Diversity, Equity & Community Engagement (ODECE)
   - More ongoing Teaching-Learning events
