Diversity Inclusion & Outreach Committee [1]

DIO’s goal is to create a welcoming and inclusive environment.

We would like to enhance opportunities and increase awareness of our diverse communities and culture. Engagement events give University employees opportunities to interact with and support the local community through fundraising, donations, and volunteer activities.

Outreach - Explore how CU serves Colorado [9]

Please consider making a difference locally and help a local organization like the ones below:

- Donate new or gently used clothes to Clothes to Kids Denver [10]
- Dumb Friends League [11] needs old towels, shoeboxes, water bottle caps and cardboard
Florence Crittenton is a nonprofit that educates and empowers teen mothers. Learn how you can connect, volunteer or give.

Training & Learning

1. CU at the Top: Diversity and Inclusion (you can browse or formally begin by completing an agreement form with your supervisor)
   - Understand and implement strategies for inclusion.
   - Uncover components of your own biases and perceptions.
   - Gain insight into other identities and experiences that are different from your own.

2. CU Boulder
   - Learn about Inclusivity from their Center for Teaching and Learning
   - Self-Paced Anti-Racism Course on Canvas
   - Anti-Racism on Coursera
   - Anti-Racism Resources (read, watch, listen, act, teach, & reflect) from their University Libraries
   - Learn about Campus Actions to Enable Change, addressing systematic racism at the Office of Diversity, Equity & Community Engagement (ODECE)
   - More ongoing Teaching-Learning events

Some current and past community service projects that the committee has sponsored include:
