Members of Strategic Planning Working Group announced ^[2]

(APR 17, 2025) - CU has announced the members of the Strategic Planning Working Group, tasked with crafting CU Strategic Plan 2.0, the next iteration of CU's systemwide strategic plan. The dedicated group of faculty, staff and administrators will collaborate to develop a plan that will align with CU's mission and vision and guide the university's growth and success in the years ahead.

CU announces co-chairs to lead Strategic Plan 2.0 ^[3]

(JAN 9, 2025) - CU President Todd Saliman has announced two co-chairs of the next systemwide strategic planning process. Chad Marturano, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the CU system, and Dr. Lynn Vidler, Interim Provost at UCCS, will lead the development of the plan, which President Saliman said "will represent our renewed commitment to strengthening CU's future in ways that enhance our impact, extend our reach and ensure sustainable growth into the future."
