UCSC Staff Excellence Award [1]

University of Colorado Staff Council (UCSC) Staff Excellence Award

UCSC will recognize staff members who have gone above and beyond their job duties and have surpassed expectations. These individuals embody what it means to be CU Excellent!

Eligibility: All members of staff, including classified and university staff across the four campuses and at the system offices, may be nominated for this prestigious award.

Award details: Each winner will receive a $250 award to be presented by a member of each campus’ leadership team during lunch at the All Staff Council all day, annual event.

- In addition to accolades, awardees are invited to join UCSC’s full day of professional development.
- Awardees will also receive a guest pass to bring a co-worker, work friend, or colleague to the full-day of development and lunch (open to CU colleague or CU staff).

Award ceremony: All awards will be presented at the All Staff Council Professional Development Day and Excellence Awards Ceremony Friday, September 25.

Nominations are now closed.

Professional Development Day and Recognition Lunch

Connecting Our Communication Personas, Emotional Intelligence & Trust

This highly interactive professional development session dives into our Communication Personas (we all have one) and then helps us understand the linkages between our personas, our emotional intelligence and the impacts on trust in our relationships.

The agenda will be determined closer to the September event.
